ITOPA'S Mission Statement

ITOPA is a theatre of and for our community, we are committed to connect, inspire and enrich everyone who we welcome into our safe space.
ITOPA believes that theatre
is an essential component of life
and that every aspect should be available to all.
Through contact, involvement and exposure to the arts, we utilize the power of the theatre environment
to foster inclusion, expression and positivity for our entire community.

Paul and Corie Bratter are newlyweds in every sense of the word. After a six day honeymoon, they get a surprise visit from Corie's loopy mother and decide to play matchmaker during a dinner with their neighbor-in-the-attic Velasco, where everything that can go wrong does.

See How They Run

By Philip King

January/ February 2027
January 29, 30, 31
February 4, 5, 6*, 7

In an English vicarage, the vicar and his wife are overwhelmed by a barrage of colorful guests, including an American actress, an American G.I. stationed with the Air Force in England, a Cockney maid who has seen too many American movies, an old dowager who "touches alcohol for the first time in her life," a sedate Bishop aghast at all these goings-on, and four men in identical clergyman suits, one of whom is an escaped prisoner.
